

2012 National Family Business Day recognising family business contribution to Australia's economy, community and culture Wednesday 19 September

Parliament House, Canberra ACT

Date/ Room Time	Agenda	Detail
Wed 19 Sept	Tasks for day – • Media Kits for Politicians and press gallery • AV checks - • Registration - name tags in boxes • Banners • De-brief with venue staff	PT, TB, KK to arrive at 9.30 am to prepare finalise day
Private Dining Rooms 1 & 2	Room set up Signage: 2012 National Family Business Day Room set up Stand up with morning tea buffet and tea and coffee station Please provide 1 clothed round table for 10pax 1 x registration table to place name tags on Dressed speakers table with water 1 x dressed table to sit data projector on AV Data projector Data projector screen Lectern and microphone VGA, Extension cords and power boards 1 x Clicker – FBA to provide	Confirmed number attending: 50 people FBA Staff Philippa - 0425 817 252 Toni - 0404 490 757 Kylie - 0419 578 176 David Smorgon Registration Desk - Name tags - Name tag box for collection Point made

Parliamentary Joint Committee on Corporations and Financial Services

Family Businesses in Australia – different and significant: why they shouldn't be overlooked

March 2013

"The awareness and understanding of Family Business in Australia is nascent"

Parliamentary Joint Committee on Corporations and Financial Services

March 2013

Surviving

FROM THE DINING ROOM

TO THE BOARD ROOM

Not Thriving

THE MGI AUSTRALIAN FAMILY AND PRIVATE BUSINESS SURVEY 2013

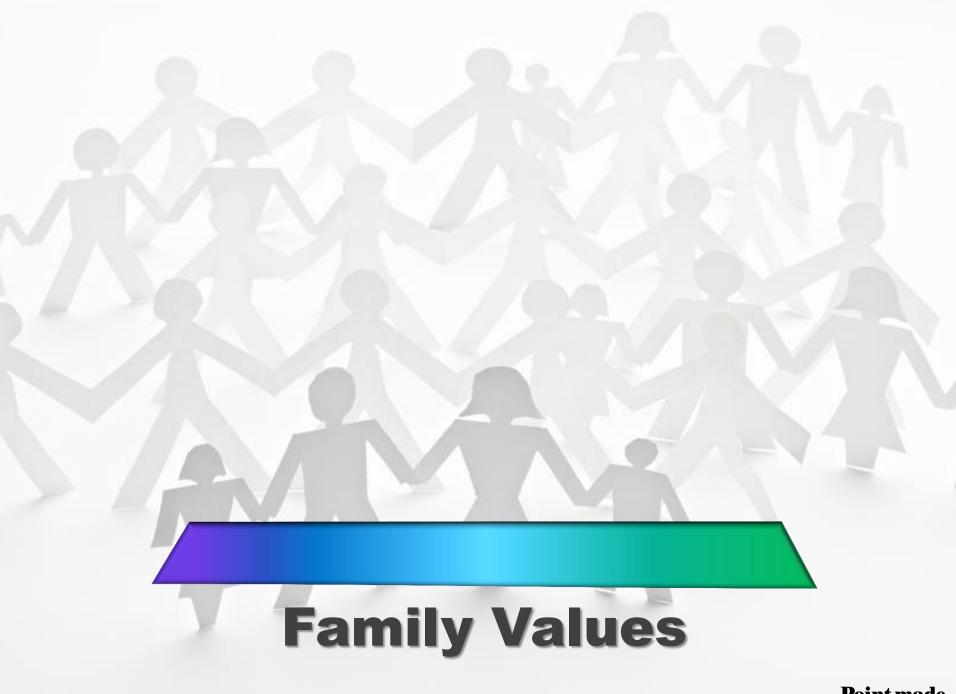

Researched and prepared by

Family Values

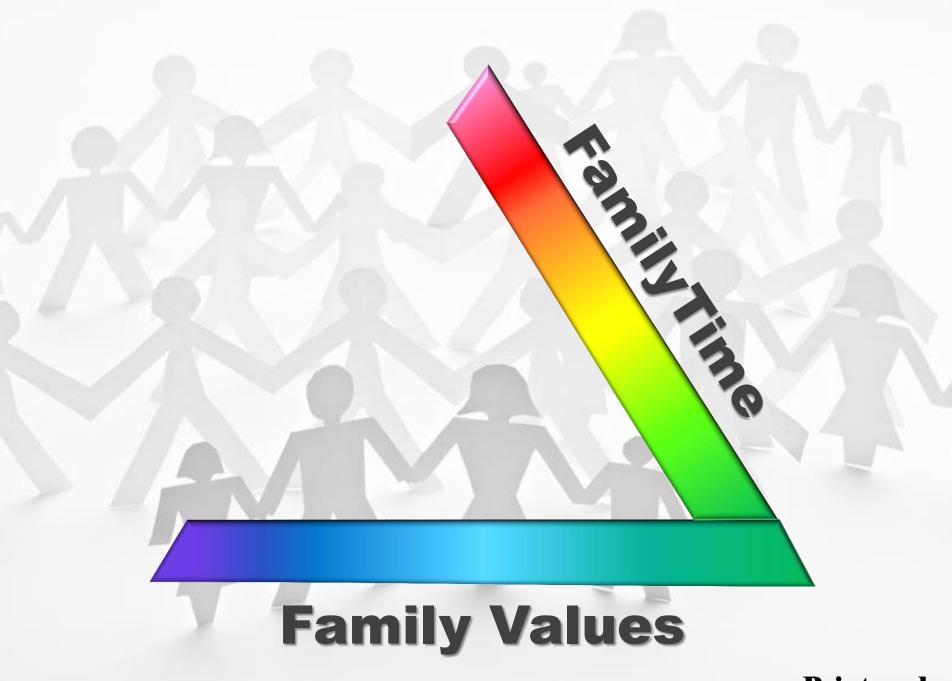

Point made.

'The Smorgon Way'

Our values are all about openness, honesty, group decision making, commitment and a drive for continuous improvement.

- Two heads are better than one.
- Everyone has a right to be heard in a non-threatening environment.
- There will be "No Surprises".
- We will promote teamwork and show consistent leadership.
- We will show respect for one another and for those with whom we deal.

Point made.

Family Values

Face to Face Communication

Smorgon Family Business

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Tuesday, February 14, 1995

$1.40

Environment Minister Senator Faulkner has abandoned proposals for a carbon tax in the face of widespread industry and State government opposition. The news came as the Prime Minister, Mr Keating, went on the offensive over leaked documents on potential spending cuts. Page 3

Foster's sparkles

Foster's Brewing Group has surprised the market by lifting interim operating profit by 26 per cent to $225 million. Carlton & United Breweries again underpinned the global brewer's activities. Companies, Page 19

Booth to quit

The Textile Clothing and Footwear Union's joint national secretary, Ms Anna

Booth, is to quit to seek a career outside the

Carbon tax plan dumped The death of a dynasty

END OF THE EXTENDED: The Smorgon clan - back row, from left: Mark Holckner, Phil Krasnostein, Rodney Smorgon, Barry Smorgon, Barry Landau, Suzi Carp, Richard Castan, Peter Edwards, Andrew Blode, Jack Smorgon, Tony Smorgon and Michael Smorgon. Seated, from left: Raymond Orloff, David Holckner, David Smorgon, Graham Smorgon, George Castan, Leslie Green, Robert Smorgon, Norman Smorgon.

Smorgons put $1bn family business on the block

AUSTRALIA's most influential industrial dynasty, Melbourne's Smorgon family, has shocked the business

By JOHN HURST and BILL PHEASANT

gon, acknowledged yesterday that the sor, with annual turnover approaching $500 million, was Point made.

Total group turnover is close to $1.3